

Radio Script 1

Bill Woolcott is planning for the day he hands his successful home-renovation business over to Bill Jr.

Fortunately, his Assante advisor is planning for it too.

Assante Wealth Management creates prosperity for Canadian families by providing a single, knowledgeable resource for all their financial needs – investments, insurance, tax and estate planning. Find out what that level of expertise can do for you.

Assante Wealth Management. Be well-advised.

For a private consultation, please call the Assante office nearest you

Radio Script 2

Tony and Lisa Palermo have a business to run, an investment property to manage and three kids to educate. But they also have an Assante advisor, so they're in good shape.

Assante Wealth Management is one of Canada's largest independent advisory networks with strength and stability, proven performance, and unparalleled support. Nobody knows more about building and preserving your family's hard-earned wealth than Assante.

Assante Wealth Management. Be well-advised.

For a consultation, please call the Assante office nearest you or visit assante.com.

Radio Script 3

Beth Milot's parents worked hard to put her through medical school. Now, with the help of her Assante advisor, she's making sure they never have to work again.

Every family has priorities. Assante Wealth Management can help you meet yours. By giving you access to a team of top analysts, accountants, lawyers and tax specialists, your advisor can optimize every aspect of your family's financial affairs.

Assante Wealth Management. Be well-advised.

For a private consultation, please call the Assante office nearest you or visit assante.com.